Pastor Marvin Wray has pastored for over 43 years including churches on the East Coast the Midwest and the West Coast. He has been married to his wonderful wife Ingrid for almost 47 years! His real passion in ministry is to share the absolute assurance of God's gift of salvation and to make that as simple as possible. Building real relationships with other people and with Jesus Christ is the fundamental structure of a Christian journey and that journey will never end throughout all of eternity.

Thursday, April 5 - Start the weekend strong. Plan to spend Friday on an island adventure to the San Juan Islands. Ride the ferry from Anacortes to Friday Harbor, and back! Board the chartered bus with stops at Roche Harbor plus the John S. McMillin Memorial Mausoleum, American Camp and Crystal Acers Alpaca Ranch. You'll hear about the 1859-1872 Pig War "Crisis," when Great Britain and the United States settled ownership of the islands through peaceful arbitration. We'll eat lunch and see the sights in Roche Harbor. Then back to Friday Harbor with plenty of time to check out what it has to offer.

Friday and Sabbath, April 6 and 7 - Enjoy all that Rosario Singles Retreat has to offer. This year's retreat has even more time to meet and make friends, enjoy a spiritual feast with Marvin, enjoy great music and food that won't disappoint! Those that attended last years retreat won't be disappointed. This years retreat has even more to offer, so don't miss out!

Sunday, April 8 - Three activities to choose from: April is Tulip Festival month in Skagit County with fields of beautiful colors that are amazing. You can also choose from a jet boat ride through Deception Pass or go whale watching to see Gray Whales.

For registration information email washingtonasam@gmail.com. You will receive a reply email with a registration packet or call 360 588-3179.

Arrive Thursday and have the all inclusive Friday Adventure for $235 or arrive Friday after 3pm for $185. See registration form for all the details.
